Chairman's Report

Wow, how quickly things can change. The year was kicking along nicely with a few new members, some tournaments coming up and hopefully some fish being caught. Now we have no venue, monthly meetings cancelled, no Sunday barbies, no tournaments and we are into "self-isolation". The important thing though is that we keep the club going.

The Tackle Box will be even more important now so that we know what's going on. To add to our communication between members we have started a Face Book Chat page - RPGSC. We can use it to distribute info, stories, pictures and some humour.

Last month's monthly meeting was well supported and very interesting with the speakers from the Government's Marine Infrastructure body letting us know what's going on and how we can have a voice.

Jeff Archey keeps working away tirelessly for us and the recreational fishers of Qld. He is a good "go to" man for how to contact the right people when we have something to say. With State elections coming up later in the year maybe we should be thinking of ways to improve the local fishery and local infrastructure and letting the candidates know what we want.

Our last Weigh-in afternoon was a bit quiet with some members away. It was held on the deck at the MBBC because the weather was predicted to be wet. As it turned out it wasn't too bad. Good to see the fish of the month go off, with Carlos pocketing $150 for a nice 610gm Bream. There were a few others that went close but only one winner. The offshore species will jackpot again until we can get back to normal business.

There are still a few Marlin around and plenty of sportfish in the dams. There is also an "online ANSA Comp" happening. I heard that "Liquid Asset" went out last week with a few of our members on board. They hooked a nice Blue but unfortunately didn't tag it. Koka Krolla also hooked up and tagged a nice Blue.

Keep fishing, keep the stories coming in and keep in touch. Most of all stay safe and virus free.

Tight lines.

Ralph

Kenilworth Camping

Lynn and I went to Kenilworth Camping for a week just before everything was shut down. We were joined by Frank & Janine Downey and another couple.

What a great camp spot right next to the Mary River with plenty of space.

We had a lovely spot right on the river, and as it was pretty hot the 1st few days we went and sat in the River with our drinks.

Sitting next to the fire just around dusk I decided to throw a line in as you would expect, I only had some Salami so put a piece on and hoped for the best.

I didn't have to wait long and the rod started peeling line off to my surprise. Chased it into the bank in the dark and had a little catfish on the end.

We had a great night next to the fire doing the usual spreading lies and just having good conversation as you do after a few wines / rums.

The next day I had to try my luck again and wow got busted off within about 10 minutes. The bait of choice this day was cheerios / little boys, not to be beaten I put on another piece and before too long I was on once again.

This time I was almost ready and the line screamed off in the same direction as the one that had just busted me off. I was able to get it back avoiding the log in the middle of the river and managed to land this catfish.

It was still not what I had been hoping for as I have been told there are still some Mary River Cod in there somewhere.

I lost a few more baits before the rod went off again, only to be disappointed with a turtle this time safely released once again.

Still not content I had to try again the next day, this time I had some chicken for bait. Well it didn't take long and once again I was on with the line screaming off. But unfortunately you guessed it another catfish.

To that end I decide to pack the rods away and sit back and have a drink and just enjoy the
